The image shows a page of drum sheet music for the title "Ele É Exaltado". The music is divided into eight staves, each representing a different drum or cymbal part. The first staff starts with a tempo marking of "rit." followed by "A Tempo". It includes measures for 13, 2, 8, and 9. The subsequent staves are numbered 34, 39, 44, 49, 54, 59, and 64. Measure 44 includes dynamic markings "mf" and "v." above the staff. Measure 64 ends with "V.S." at the end of the eighth staff. The notation uses standard musical symbols like stems, dashes, and crosses to indicate different drum strokes and sustained notes.
